I am interested in serving as a citizen participant on the Library Board.

Please list interests and/or experience you have in the area you are applying for and explain why you would like to participate on this board.

I just retired from Charlotte Public Schools after 28 years. Eleven of those years were in the Media Center (Library) I started inventory books into our follett system - I also was in charge of putting the districts equipment into our Follett system. I have a passion for reading & know its very important to show our children the love of reading

Would you be willing to attend seminars related to the board in question? (yes, no)
Will you be able to attend the majority of the meetings of this Board? (yes, no)
