Comment: Council Members,

I am submitting an opinion of my own that the City council should not pursue the task of being a part of the hiring/firing process of city employees. I believe it is the responsibility of the City manager and the division supervisors to carry that burden. Council members should hold accountable the City managers ability to make good decisions for the City of Charlotte. If the City manager fails to do so only then should the Council take action. That action should be toward the City Manager and their ability to perform in the position they hold.

Sincerely,

Jesse Emery
