I am interested in serving as a citizen participant on the Planning Commission

Please list interests and/or experience you have in the area you are applying for and explain why you would like to participate on this board.

I worked for the State of Michigan for twenty years and have experience and interest with local planning projects through my previous positions. I left the state last year to start my own company and am very excited to be more involved in local planning since my change in employment allows more flexibility.
Would you be willing to attend seminars related to the board in question? (yes, no)

Will you be able to attend the majority of the meetings of this Board? (yes, no)
